Memorandum for the Files

Subject: The Japanese Government's Desire to Amend the U.S.-Japan
FCN Treaty

During the course of Minister Arthur Z. Gardiner's courtesy call on the Japanese Ambassador on August 3, the Ambassador referred to the "negotiation of the FCN Treaty during the coming year," as one of the many matters in which Minister Gardiner would be involved.

Minister Gardiner responded that he would hope that no change in the Treaty would be necessary, noting that the treaty with Japan was a standard one.

The Ambassador said, however, that "a few alterations" might be needed.
